Due's Bank Note Reporter .- The papers of . Cincinnati are all out upon Goodman's Counterfeit Detector, and Dye's Bank Mirror, both published at Cincinnati. It seems these Detectors have been made use of to push off un- 90% worthy and rotton trash, by quoting it as good. Goodman's Detector, at present conducted by one McCammon, quoted the notes of the Lafayette Bank of Washington at ninety eight cents, when even the editor would not take it for so much. Dye's Mirror quoted the Checks of the City Exchange Company, Memphis, payable in coal, as par Bank notes. It seems that both these publication, which have been looked to as authority, have been assisting Geo. Loudon, April 29, 1853. WORLD'S FARE. THE present age istraly a great era, in the World's History. Coloric engines, Magnetic Telegraphs, &c. And the Arts and sciences so improved in point of correctness and simplicity, that it only requires one fourth of the time and expense, now, to gain . competent knowledge of many of the Arts, that was required 20 years ago. For example, Twenty years ago it required from 10 to 20 days to learn the art of Garment Cutting; now by the aid of

J. S. BONHAM'S Garment Cutter, any Lady of common capacity can gain a practical knowledge of this truly interestion and necessary branch of domestic economy, in from 1 to 2 days. By this Best Rule of Garment Cutting, the Ladies are up with the Tailor, and in many case they render more satisfaction than the Tailor-their Coats, Pants and Vests, fit neat casy and fashionable. This work is now selling in 14 of the Southern and Wester States. A part of the Western and all the Eastern States are yet for sale, and I am giving a most extraordinary chance to make money in the sale of the Copy Right of States, &c, for further information as to the sale of the Copy Right, Orders for Patterns, &c., address me [Post
